WHERE LIFE MEETS THE EDGE

BEAUTY KNOWS NO BOUNDS

IN TOUCH WITH NATURE

Marine Life

Naturally, corals and marine life flock to the bustling underwater oasis formed underneath the city's floating barges to form a hub of life that follows Aisland Floating City wherever it goes.

In this haven where earth and water coalesce, one can delve into this underwater world. Beneath the floating city's colossal barges, a hidden realm awaits – a life-filled aquatic wonderland that beckons both novice and seasoned divers or snorkelers alike.

IN TOUCH WITH NATURE

Terrestrial Life

In between Aisland Floating City's structures, a flourishing terrestrial paradise mirrors the bustling underwater haven formed beneath the city's floating barges. This vibrant hub of life, where lush greenery thrives, accompanies the city on its journey, offering a serene escape from the urban surroundings and water.

Visitors are invited to explore the gardens found on almost every barge, whether it be in between apartments or in between villas. Private gardens can also be found in each villa, providing a secluded retreat in nature.

LUXURIOUS INTERIORS

Properties

Regardless of whether you're in an apartment or a villa, Aisland Floating City's luxurious interiors will be sure to make you feel at home.

LOCATION

Floating City

The Aisland Floating City construction is currently in progress, and its first barge has already established a stable community off the UAE coast in international waters.

That being said, the project's ultimate objective is to establish the Floating City in close proximity to the Seychelles islands and Madagascar, in the shallow waters of the Saya de Malha bank
